Week-Long Summer Camps 2013

Children will enjoy dancing, singing, storytelling, arts and crafts, games, playing instruments, supervised outdoor nature exploration, and musical theater activities.

Instruments being used include drums, bongos, tambourines, rattles, jingles, rhythm sticks, sand-blocks, the metal-lophone, glockenspiel, resonator bars, and keyboard/piano.

Activities are education-based and promote musical, social, physical, emotional, and intellectual development.

Your child's personal snack from home will be served each day. If your child has specific food or environmental allergies or pertinent medical conditions, please list them on the registration form.

Please put sunscreen on your children before camp, as we may go outside for some activities.

Location
