

Saturday, June 30, 2012 • 7 P.M.
Lubbock Memorial Civic Center

College Baseball's Night of Champions is a two-hour event featuring the 2012 class of National College Baseball Hall of Famers and the presentation of college baseball's annual awards!

Scheduled to appear:

- Two-time All-American Nomar Garciaparra from Georgia Tech and the Boston Red Sox
- Hall of Famer Lou Brock of Southern University and the St. Louis Cardinals
- Two-time All-American Brad Wilkerson University of Florida and the Montreal Expos
- 2003 College World Series Champion coach Wayne Graham of the Rice Owls
- 16-time NAIA National champion Coach Ed Cheff of Lewis-Clark College
- Two-time NCAA Division III Player of the Year Tim Jorgensen of Wisconsin-Oshkosh
- Grandson of the late Frank Sancet, longtime coach of the Arizona Wildcats

And presentation of these awards, given to the best and brightest from the 2012 College Baseball season:

- The Dick Howser Trophy - college baseball's version of the Heisman Trophy
- The National Pitcher of the Year Award, college baseball's version of the Cy Young Award
- Brooks Wallace Award, given to the top collegiate shortstop
- The Johnny Bench Award, given to the top collegiate catcher
- The John Olerud Award Two-Way Player of the Year Award
- The NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award, given to the nation's top relief pitcher

View 2011 show here: <http://tinyurl.com/NightOfChampions11>)

The dress is casual - shorts and tennis shoes acceptable.

www.collegebaseballhall.org