Jamaican Jargon

Jerk - A style of cooking native to Jamaica in which meat is dry-rubbed or wet marinated with a very hot mixture of more than 30 spices.

Ackee & Saltfish - The Jamaican national dish is saltfish sauteed with boiled ackee, onions, Scotch Bonnet peppers, tomatoes, and spices including black pepper.

Escovitch - Fish marinated in a sauce of vinegar, onions, carrots and Scotch Bonnet peppers with a sweet and sour taste.

Festival - Made with flour, cornmeal and other sweeteners then fried to a golden brown. Great finger food.

Irish moss - A tropical seaweed used to make a beverage popular in the Caribbean.
