OUR HISTORY:

In 1787, during an era when beer brewing was this area of Baltimore's biggest industry, Claggett's Brewery was built on this site. Twenty-seven years later, next-door neighbor and seamstress Mary Pickersgill sat in the brewery's malt room to put the final stitches on a flag that inspired Francis Scott Key's poem that referenced the flag as "the star-spangled banner." The poem officially became America's national anthem in 1931.

In more recent years, the site was home to the Baltimore Brewing Company, locally famous for brewing DeGroen's beer. The grain silo and one of the brewing tanks from the Baltimore Brewing Company were salvaged and together are being used in our hotel courtyard, to collect and store rainwater for landscape irrigation Fairfield Inn & Suites Baltimore Downtown/Inner Harbor, following the theme that has been set for over 200 years, offers Tavern 101 to our guests and local community.
