

*Welcome to the World Famous
Lexington Candy Shop*

ESTABLISHED 1925

SERVING NEW YORKERS AND WORLD VISITORS
THROUGH THREE GENERATIONS

Lexington Shop
Candy
LUNCHEONETTE

Welcome to the Lexington Candy Shop, an establishment often described as a "Living Landmark." Established in 1925 by Soterios Philis and Tami Naskos, the Luncheonette has been a neighborhood fixture through the Great Depression, periods of high inflation, fourteen presidents, the roaring 20's, the rebellious 60's, the go-go 80's, the high tech 90's, and now the new millennium. Pictures and articles adorning our walls reveal our storied past.

In 1930, Soterios was joined by his son Peter. Peter became part of the Yorkville fabric for the next fifty-five years during which he came to know three generations of many families as the store became known to the neighborhood as "Pete's Place." In 1980, Pete was joined by his son John and in 1990 John formed a partnership with Bob Karcher bringing together two partners with similar values and a desire for quality and tradition.

Last renovated in 1948, walking into the store is comparable to going through a time warp. Any updating has been done with the thought of carefully preserving the authenticity of that era. This philosophy has led to many local, national and international magazine and newspaper articles, as well as radio and television features. The Luncheonette has appeared in Three Days of the Condor with Robert Redford and Faye Dunaway, The Nanny Diaries with Scarlett Johansen and Paul Giamatti, and has served Hollywood and the fashion industry for numerous commercials and location shots. So as you enjoy your visit to the Lexington Candy Shop, don't be surprised if you spot a celebrity or two also enjoying a "step back in time."

OUR PHILOSOPHY

We strive to maintain our classic American tradition and continue a menu with ingredients and recipes that simply do not change just for the sake of change or the current "food trend."

Our orange juice is always fresh squeezed to order as are our acclaimed orangeades, lemonades and lime rickeys. Malts, milk shakes, frosted, ice cream sodas, floats and egg creams are made with our own syrups and Bassetts super premium ice creams. We use real malt powder in our malts; a true rarity nowadays. Iced tea is fresh brewed and since we have a great cup of hot American coffee our iced coffee is also terrific. Our fountain sodas are still made as they were in 1925, by mixing the syrup and seltzer by hand, not by a machine in the basement. The food items start with bread from Orwasher's Bakery just a few blocks away. Founded in 1916, all their breads are still made by hand and without preservatives. This includes breads used in our world famous French Toasts which are simply outstanding! And don't forget our pancakes which have received rave reviews from Australian, Japanese and European travel guides for New York City. Our egg dishes feature extra large eggs prepared in special pans using either Land O Lakes or Hotel Bar butter. Our sandwich salads are all made on premises. Our turkey and roast beef are always fresh and cooked by our staff. Our burgers are always ground fresh and never frozen. We also strive to offer the best deserts available with our pies, cakes and brownies, but don't forget to leave room for our homemade rice pudding or our fabulous Bassett's ice cream started in 1861 in Philadelphia.
