

WHO IS THE LADY SILVIA?

A place that is uniquely built to give satisfaction to people from all walks of life, Lady Silvia provides a charismatic, old-world charm and fascination to the public. Inspired by Prague's Strahov Monastery Library, this new lounge flaunts dazzling furniture situated on its black and white checkerboard floor, invoking an English-style library and cocktail bar ambiance.

A BIT ABOUT HER ATMOSPHERE:

Music - Enjoy unique sounds of the roaring 20's updated with new age rhythms and beats, rare groove, funk and soul from the 50's, 60's and 70's as well as late 80's and early 90's disco and pop. The Lady Silvia is home to musical director and resident DJ Shoe. Shoe provides the baseline sound that defines the bar and lounge with additional flavors poured on top by developing young DJ talents Glaze, Bonez and No1Nose. Guest DJs include Mike White, Douglas Gibbs, Pizzo and Warren Peace. NOTE – More than half of the live DJ sets spun in this house are spun on vinyl.

Lights - Relax deep in your seat with low lighting.

Video - Take a journey into forgotten visual spaces watching vintage reels on the subjects of old Hollywood, fashion shows, art and more. The Lady Silvia has an extensive library of unusual art films from yesterday to today, as well as nostalgic TV show sitcoms and dramas. No rhyme and reason to what is played when, where and why. Its random and sure to keep you interested.
